

I think the Do Not Call List in New Jersey should remain as is. Businesses should not be able to call back people they have contacted in the past 18 months.